

THE INSTITUTION OF FIRE ENGINEERS

2010 Graduate Lecture

Presented by

Ms. Karen Boyce, University of Ulster

“Human Behaviour in Fire – Implications for Design & Management”

To be held in The Nyquist Theatre at the Arup Campus, Solihull, West Midlands, B90 8AE

Tuesday 20th April 2010

The IFE Graduate Lecture is a showcase for the excellent research being carried out by Fire Engineering students in their Graduate year. The event attracts Fire Industry employers seeking to recruit, offering career opportunities for young Fire Engineers.

Free places are available to current Fire Engineering Degree students and those who graduated in 2009.

Contact your course tutor about attending.

For further details visit the event web site:

<https://www.eventsforce.net/ife/graduate2010/home>