This year, the International President’s dinner will be held at a prestigious venue in the historic heart of the City of London, adjacent to the origin of and the Monument to the Great Fire of London.

The venue is the home of The Fishmongers’ Company, one of the Twelve Great Livery Companies of the City of London, and among the most ancient of the City Guilds. The dinner will be an event in its own right, and will offer patrons the opportunity to:

- Hear from a distinguished speaker who is a serving senior officer in HM Forces
- Hear the history of the City of London, the Great Fire and the development of the first Fire Brigades in London from a guest speaker on the topic
- Experience the City of London banquet hall setting with full service
- Visit as part of the evening the Monument to the Great Fire which is just across the street from the venue

Spaces for the dinner this year are subject to occupancy limits so please make use of the booking facility for this once in a lifetime opportunity.

Partners’ programme

The IFE’s London branch intends to re-introduce a partners’ programme, subject to demand, for the London conference. The conference venue is located in central London within a district where both sides of the river Thames offer an exciting range of cultural, architectural and historical attractions, all within easy walking distances. The programme will be free of charge (other than locally applied entrance fees where applicable) and tailored to demand so please contact ifepartnersprogramme@gmail.com to register your interest before 30th June 2015.

Please be aware because of strict security considerations at this event, attendance at the AGM is subject to capacity limits and it is vital therefore that you register at the earliest opportunity so that we can confirm final numbers. For this reason attendance at the AGM will be restricted to members only. The booking system for all registrations, including attendance only at the AGM, will close on the 30th June 2015, any bookings received after this date will not be accepted.

Please note that photographic evidence of ID will be required at entry to the venue, along with a letter of invitation with delegate registration number.
