Terms and Conditions for Examination Candidates – March 2015

Candidates applying for the IFE examinations agree to be bound by the Terms and Conditions set out below.

1. Candidates must provide true and accurate information when they complete the application form. This information will be used to generate certificates where applicable. Candidates are responsible for informing the IFE of any changes in the information provided.
2. Candidates must submit their examination entry fee at the same time as they submit their application form.
3. Candidates must submit their entries by the closing date of 30 November 2014. Candidates may cancel their entries up until 14 December 2014. Examination fees will not be refunded after this time.
4. Candidates must provide proof of identity to the examination centre prior to sitting their examination.
5. Candidates must familiarise themselves with the rules and conditions that apply to examinations set by the IFE and must ensure that they comply with these rules.
6. All candidates must conduct themselves in an appropriate manner during the examination. Any candidate who does not conduct themselves in an acceptable manner or who is identified by the examination centre as committing malpractice or failing to comply with the examination arrangements stipulated by the IFE may be asked to leave the examination room. The IFE reserves the right to disqualify candidates who do not comply with the examination rules. In this instance, fees will not be refunded.
7. Candidates are responsible for ensuring that they arrive at the examination venue on time. Candidates must arrive at least 30 minutes before the examination commences. Candidates who are late may not be allowed to take the examination.
