

Use of the IFE Fire Risk Assessor Logo

Individuals listed on the IFE's Register of Fire Risk Assessors may use the IFE Fire Risk Assessor logo in accordance with the regulations contained within this document. No other IFE logo may be used and it should be noted that all IFE logos are legally protected against unauthorised use.

Website

The IFE Fire Risk Assessor logo must only be used next to the name of the person or persons listed on the IFE's Register of Fire Risk Assessors.

Business cards

The IFE Fire Risk Assessor logo may be used on business cards provided the individual is a fully paid up current member of the IFE's Register of Fire Risk Assessors.

Company vehicles

The IFE Fire Risk Assessor logo may be used on company vehicles provided the individual whose name appears alongside the logo is a fully paid up current member of the IFE's Register of Fire Risk Assessors. Please bear in mind that if you fail to maintain your registration due to, for instance, non-payment of fees or removal from the register, then you will need to ensure all IFE Fire Risk Assessor logos are removed.

IFE Fire Risk Assessor logos cannot be used:

- 'Stand alone' on company websites.
- On general corporate branded documents

Further advice

Should you require further advice regarding IFE logo use, please contact:

The Fire Risk Registration Coordinator

The Institution of Fire Engineers

01789 404060 - direct

frr@ife.org.uk