The IFE will carry out periodic reviews of Recognised Training Courses, Recognised Training Providers and Recognised Educational Programmes, normally every three years. This will involve a desk top review but may necessitate a visit to the Recognised organisation in which case travel and subsistence expenses for reviewer(s) are payable by the organisation wishing to continue IFE Recognition. As a registered charity, the IFE always ensures that such expenses are kept to a reasonable minimum.

Please note:

- ◆ Fees are reviewed each year and are payable in January each year.
- ◆ Any significant changes to the structure, content or delivery of courses/programmes and/or to the training organisation must be notified to the IFE immediately.
- ◆ For information on Terms and Conditions, please see the Terms and Conditions requirements which are available on the IFE website.
