Payable in full in the year of recognition. Fees are reviewed every year, and are payable each January thereafter.*

Please note:

Any significant changes to the structure, content, delivery of courses and educational programmes must be notified to the IFE immediately.

The IFE will carry out periodic reviews of recognised courses, providers and educational programmes, normally every three years. This will involve a desk top review but may necessitate a visit in which case travel and subsistence expenses for reviewer(s) are payable by the organisation wishing to continue IFE recognition. As a registered charity, the IFE always ensures that such expenses are kept to a reasonable minimum.
